

Masculine and feminine adjectives

Usually, to make an adjective feminine, all you need to do is add “e”.

For example: violent --- violente, grand ---- grande, petit ---- petite

However, some adjectives are special, and need a new ending. Check out the adjectives below:

Masculine

canadien

sensationnel

merveilleux (= marvelous)

sportif (= athletic)

beau (nice)

bon

Feminine

canadienne

sensationnelle

merveilleuse

sportive

belle

bonne

If the masculine adjective ends in “e”, no spelling change is needed for the feminine. For example:

triste (= sad)

triste

bizarre

bizarre

unique

unique

Adjectifs --- pluriel

To make adjectives plural, just add “s”. For example: vite-----vites, petit----petits

However, if it ends in “x”, there is no spelling change.

Also, if it ends in “eau”, you make this plural by adding “x”. For example: Nouveau-----nouveaux
