

Francais 9 Unité 3 Le future proche      Nom: _____

French also uses the verb “ aller” (to go) for the future.

Here’s how it works:

- you need a subject ( someone /something to do the action )
- the form of “aller” that goes with the subject
- another verb in its infinitive form ( that means its original form ; you don’t remove endings like –er, - ir , re )

You’ll need to learn these:

ALLER

Je vais = I go / I’m going	Nous allons = We go / We’re going
Tu vas = You go / You’re going	Vous allez = You go / You’re going
Il va = He goes / He’s going	Ils vont = They go / They’re going
Elle va = She goes / She’s going	Elles vont = They go / They’re going

Here are a few examples :

Je vais parler à mon père = I am going to speak to my father .

Tu vas regarder le film . = You are going to watch the film.

Il va faire une pizza = He is going to make a pizza.

Elles vont aider . = They (f) are going to help.

To say that something is not going to happen, you use “ ne....pas” .

You put the ne before the form of “aller” and the pas after.

Example: Je ne vais pas danser. = I am not going to dance.
